

NFA WARNING

WARNING! From BATF RONI Classification Letter of May 06 2010 paragraph 5

1) The addition of the RONI stock set to a Glock type Pistol results in the manufacture of a short-barreled rifle (SBR) which falls within the classification of firearms subject to NFA controls (Section 5845(a)(3). The manufacture of SBR's is generally lawful when performed after the receipt of a properly submitted ATF Form 1 (application to make and register a firearm) and submission of a $ 200.00 making tax payment.

WARNING! Provided by our legal counsel

2) If you actually possess or constructively possess, a pistol and the RONI device, even if the pistol is not assembled into the RONI device, the combination would constitute a short barrel rifle (SBR) which may not be lawfully possessed unless it is registered in the National Firearms Registration and Transfer Record. You are in constructive possession of an object if you have dominion and control over it whether or not you are actually handling it.

WARNING! Other applicable laws

- 3) State and Local Laws supersede NFA controls. Title 27 CFR Chapter II Section 479.52.
- 4) I certify I am over 21 years old.
- 5) Export of this product is controlled by US State Dept & ITAR
